Stock Bubble App

Summary

A fun and shareable stock watchlist app, designed for mobile, that delivers accurate market data. The app offers an intuitive interface with real-time data, dynamic animations, and customizable themes, making financial information easy and enjoyable to interact with on any mobile device.

Contribution

- Market research
- Design and technology research and development
- UX and UI design
- Integration of real-time financial data streaming
- QA testing
- Data analytics
- Customer support

Duration

4 Months

Platform

Problem

Wagner De Paula

Users find it difficult to make informed investment decisions because existing financial apps present stock market data in a complex and overwhelming way. There is a need for an app that simplifies real-time data visualization, is secure, compliant with regulations, and offers an intuitive experience to help users make smarter financial decisions.

One of the first visualizations on the web, the SmartMoney Map of the Market lets you see "at-a-glance" what the entire market is doing. The performance of individual sectors and securities is easily determined in this organized method of charting. It has displayed live stock market data for more than a decade, starting in 1998.

Re: Stock Bubble App
Back here begging for the edit functionality! 🙏😁
This app has SO much promise (as I have tried almost all similar ones), but it lacking that functionality limits it just to checking overall markets and keeps investors from coming back on a regular basis.
Good luck though! Thanks.

Stock Bubble App
Plan on ever updating it so that you can edit your watchlists w/o having to delete and re-add everything? Would take this app to next level. W/o that functionality people can't make it their go-to stock app. Think it would become that w a simple update. Good luck!

Re: Stock Bubble App
Actually noticed one other thing. Not sure if it's a glitch or a known issue still in development, but when you click on an issuers logo and get all the various bubbles for that issuer, if you try to click on each to see their details, it only shows the name of the issuer for each one instead of the actual fund.

Stock Bubble App
Love this app but it's missing one crucial (and seemingly obvious) functionality: the ability to edit watchlists after creating them. For example, if I purchase a new blue chip stock and want to add it to my "Blue Chips" watchlist, right now, I can't. I'd have to delete the list and recreate the entire thing, but adding in the new stock. This is painful and frankly a dealbreaker for me. This app has so much potential that it seems crazy to me that such a simple thing would be holding it back. Please let me know when or if you plan to update the functionality. Thanks!
